« A tracked woman, a revolution on the move, the secret of Castro »

The three days which changed the fate of Cuba

Cuba, 1959. As the entire island celebrates the New Year, the revolutionaries led by Fidel Castro and Che Guevara are about to seize power.

In the room of a sleazy hotel in Havana, a young woman awakes amnesic, the body of a dead woman lying at her sides. Innocent or murderer, she goes in search of her lost memory.

Holder of a state secret without knowing it, tracked by unknown men, she has just a few hours to save her life.

In the company of Enrique, a young romantic student, she plunges in the mysterious and electric atmosphere of Havana, meets Hemingway, Ava Gardner and the gangster Meyer Lansky. As the fate of Cuba is hanging in the balance, she has the power to change the course of the Revolution.
